Dear future music lover I am Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, my style of music is classical music, I was born in 1756, in Salzburg Australia, I play piano and violin.

I love music and want to share it with the world because, when I was 6, I started learning piano and violin, my father wanted me to be a very strong musician, I was extremely talented, I had my first composition published when I was 8.

Music and life <sup>has</sup> evolved in the future with new modern music and classical music, and other music I may not know about like Opera and Romantic music.

Some questions I have are, <sup>e/</sup> what other music has the future created, <sup>are other</sup> beings composing, what is the future like, <sup>lastly</sup> what different instruments have been invented.

In all, I wish to say I believe you are a great music lover and that you are doing fabulous on your relationship to music. Lastly I wanted to say Thank you my great music lover.

Amadeus Mozart

Sincerely, Wolfgang

Daniela Owusu

Dear Future Music Lover,

Hello my name is Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart. I am very talented. When I played classical music, I was born in 1756 in Salzburg, Austria. When I was 6, I gave concerts all over Europe.

I love music because I began playing at a very young age. I traveled all over Europe spreading my music. I loved to share my music because I enjoyed it and wanted other people to enjoy it too. I felt like everyone should feel the joy of music. I wanted Europe to feel how interesting music was.

I wonder how music has developed over the years? I wonder how the world has changed? How does the world looks now? How does everyone look now? How has technology developed?

If you ever find this Future Music Lover I hope you can write back to me.

Dear Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart,

Hello my name is Daniela T. Owusu-Andrews. I am talented in singing. I like to listen to Classical music. I was born on May 26, 2002. In Germany then, I moved to New York.

I love music because my mom is a singer. I go to an afterschool program to sing. I was influenced by your music because it is interesting and relaxing. Your music made me feel like I could listen to it anytime I got angry.

Music developed nicely over the years now there is rap, pop, country, hip-pop and r&b. Now you don't have to farm. There are lots of buildings and houses. There are cars with gas. Everyone wear t-shirt, jeans, uniform sneaker, skirt, dress, suits and ties. Technology has developed incredibly now there are laptops, iphone, ipods, tablets, projectors, x-box, wii, video games, speakers and piano has improved.

I hope you would be able to read my letter Wolfgang.

Dear future music lover,

My name is Mr. Ludwig van Beethoven. I love you and all my fans out there and all the support they give me. I was born in Germany in 1770. My childhood was not fair and happy as yours might be. I have, a... how do I put this, very bossy father. He forced me to practice piano. It was very very tiring! I got punished for every time I made a mistake. I love my Father but would you like such a unfair father like mine? I was, wait let me see, 12 years old when I started to make money playing piano. I liked it so I really needed the money to continue traveling and play my beautiful music all over Germany. You know I've realized I'm pretty good at piano now! So anyways, when I was twenty years old, I moved to Vienna, Austria. Which is the musical capital of Europe. I spent the rest of my life there, and I became a famous piano player. I really enjoyed being famous because now I have you, my fans, in my life to support me! I studied and worked with Joseph Haydn. Many other musicians spent time in Vienna during my life there. Oh, including my friend Franz Schubert. Enough with Franz Schubert. So, when I was thirty years old I started to lose my hearing. I mean, I guess you can call me a deaf guy! No I don't call me that, that's Puerto! I heard a kind of constant ringing in my ear, which made it hard to hear music, my music, or any kind of conversations.

with people. It was sad because I could no longer perform in public, but the good thing was that I can still write music! Some of my most greatest and popular music was the ninth symphony which was actually written when I was completely deaf! Wait! I know. It was actually written for both a orchestra and a choir. It was one of the most famous pieces of music of all time! Today, we might hear bits of commercials, and it sure has been used in many movies. So, many people can notice the "Ode to Joy" at they are, and of the symphony. You know it can be hard to imagine that I can hear the music in my mind. I actually believe it is not composed both classical and romantic music. Classical music is really light, with only one main melody, usually played with string instruments. Romantic music is often described as "emotional". When I was composing, the classical style was going out of fashion, and the romantic style was becoming even more popular. I wrote music for all types of instruments and groups including Symphonies, concertos, folk music, and even an opera! So, know me done talking about me so much do you want to ask your questions. So, how has life been when ever you ask? Do you like music? If so, besides classical what type? Do you want to become a famous musician? What style of music would you sing? Last but not least, name the music. Let me know? Bye! Wait before I go I would like to know, what's name? ps, Ludwig van Beethoven!

I am famous. Hell, at least in my side of overcome challenges. My style in the music genre is Classical Music. I performed and wrote most songs. One of them was "Moon-

I worked as an composer and wrote music for all types of instruments and groups, includ-

Music is like one of the best things that

Dear Mr. Beethoven,

I am a massive fan of yours. I play piano and you inspired me to play it. I'm 11 years old and of course on my music grades I have all fours. Mr. Hall (my music teacher) says that I'm a great singer and pianist. I also go to a program called, "High Bridge vocal". There they help me to have a strong voice and to become a great singer. Unlike you Mr. Beethoven I wasn't forced to play piano. I made chords on my own.

What's your relationship to music if something out of the natural, it's immense. I have played one of your songs Ludwig which was "Worl's Best Seger". When in my school I played on the stage on the grand piano, for some reason I felt you were there right next to me. I felt like all the ones on me had fallen, I felt free. When I played that piano I rocked it. But all in all I felt a strong connection between me and you, like I was in your shoes.

Great details

I was reading your letter and you had questions for me. You said, "I would like to know how music has changed over the years? Well Music today is mostly rap. No! Bach is not even near the modern trifist of today. Some are Nicki Minaj, Madonna, Drake, ect. I hope I answered your question Mr. Beethoven.

This is an "A!"

Hello, welcome future music lover!

Hello I am Ludwig Van Beethoven. I was born in Germany during the year of 1770. My father was strict. He punished me for every little mistake on piano. My style was romantic and classic<sup>ish</sup> music. The reason I loved music and wanted to share my music with the world is because I wrote many different types of music and sung for many different styles of music,

I sung and wrote music for all types of instruments and groups, including symphonies, concertos, solo music, and even opera. The way I think music is going to involve in a way that is going to make me better at what already do which is music. I was influenced by my dad to keep on trying no matter what. His help paid off as he always said.

Music is amazing. Every time I wrote songs I made plenty of mistakes. One of the songs I wrote is "Ode to Joy" and "In the mountain signora". When I was little and was thinking about music I was very impressed by all the different types of music people played. I thought the future was going to be a bright place, all because of music. After this experience I wanted to learn all about music.

Now that I discovered my occupation, how is the future going to be for me?

Hello, Ludwig Von Beethoven. My name is minuya marie Jones. I love to sing, dance, do gymnastics, I also for some reason like math and writing. I was born May 18. I love music like family. Music has taught me so many new things, such as how to read music, understand music, sing high and low not and all thing like those specific thing. Mr Beethoven you inspired me to keep trying. This ~~probably~~ will bring back how strict your father was.

Music is one of my number one favorite hobbies. Music is something I love to do. You inspired me to put music first and keep trying. You taught me to never have doubt in your self. In music you have different keys to certain songs.

In the future you become famous. One of you were known for composing the classical style. You become a professional singer, and pianist. You are known for your special work. The future is bright for you.

Ever since you became famous you made a song "Ode to Joy" and it has been used in many movies and commercials. It is one of the most

Dear future music lover,

Hi, my name is Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart. I was born in 1756 in Salzburg, Austria and I really like to use the piano and violin. People say I am really talented because I got famous at age 6.

I really like music because it really it inspires me to be better at what I do. Music has been my life since I was a child, I would practice a lot so I could be good.

Now, tell me how's life in the future? I wanted to know is there any vehicle that can fly at the time, or is there any communication device that you do not need to do much to communicate with others?

I would be very glad if you can answer these questions for me. See you in the other side

Hi, my name is Nathan Guzman. I was the one who got your letter. I am 11 years old born in December 26, 2003 and I am in the school "Bronx Academy of Promise". I am also in a music program called "Highbridge Voices".

I love music because it influences me to do things, and it also sometimes makes me happy and even excited. Your music is very exciting its like im watching an action movie in my head.

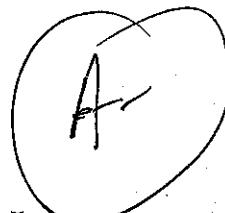

Its so exciting.

The answer to those questions are life is great! Now technology makes life simple and easy, But no there is no flying vehicle but that would've been awesome! And also there is a communication device called a "cell phone" so there is a communication device.

Thank you for sending me a letter and letting me know you

~~Inder~~ Dear Future Musical Man

I am Ludwig van Beethoven. I was born in Germany in 1770. When I composed my last song I was completely deaf. My favorite music is classical and romantic. It's my style. I didn't have a good childhood. I was forced to play piano, and I got in trouble when I played the wrong note.

I like music because it's my passion. I learned to play different instruments such as a piano. Music is my life. I went all over Europe composing music. My favorite composition is the fifth symphony. You can hear it best on an organ.

I wonder how music sounds in the future. Does it sound robotic or does it sound like mine. Does it sound like mine but with different instruments. If it does COOL! P.S.

With love,

Beethoven

Dear Beethoven,

My name is Joshua. I got your letter. I am a doctor. My favorite color and food is red and pizza. I have a dog and a fish. I am from Puerto Rico. My favorite subject is health. I also study music.

I was very influenced by your work. I love your music because it's inspiring and emotional. I haven't seen a song that's emotional since 1900. That's why I love your music.

By the way music has evolved completely. You were right! It sounds robotic. Also I've heard the fifth symphony. It is great! My music is kind of like yours but it uses an electric guitar.

Sincerely,

Josh

Music will have changed. You know what I mean, people would be much more interested in songs that have bad words in them. I thought music was about expressing yourself in many ways but I was wrong. What will happen to the world when they're gone?

Yours truly,
Beethoven

Dear Beethoven

My name is Yannesa Boateng. I am a fan of your great work. I go to Highbridge Voices. It is an afterschool for sansachers Singers, but on tuesday I go to my glee club. You probably don't know what that is. It is a acting and singing afterschool. We hear lot of your music in Highbridge voices.

I was born and raised with music. My mom, grandma, and ancestors were in a choir or loved to sing. Your work influenced me a whole lot. That's the only reason I started music. Now, since I've heard all pieces I want to start playing the piano but I need someone to teach me.

Beethoven, you are a hundred percent correct about the future. It's called rap music and almost all of them curse in them. I Can't lie to you I also like that kind of music. One thing that stayed the same is that your music is still in our hearts.
